EUGENE O'BRIEN AT THE BUTLER TODAY

"Broadway and Home" is the title of Eugene O'Brien's new picture, which will be shown at the Butler today. As the title indicates, the story tells a vividly contrasting tale of the gay night life of New York, the capital of the world, and the peaceful existence of the dwellers of a small New England coast village. Mr. O'Brien portrays the interesting character of a young man who has lived by and on the sea all his life, suddenly placed in the gayest of gay Manhattan Bohemian society. But as every rose has its thorn, so is there a dark side to the gay life, in which Michael Strange finds himself. His very soul is torn and his body shattered by misadventure that tempts him to give up his life, and it is only his mother's training and faith that enables him to survive the maddest of maddest into which he is swept. The scenic effects of the picture are in keeping with the atmosphere and spirit of the story. The sea in all its aspects, becalmed and stormy alike, corresponds with the glittering lights of the "Gay White Way," which often only serve to cover a mask of sorrow. It shows New York life in all its phases—there is variety, action, romance and punch.

Added to the feature will be the latest Pathé News. Tomorrow, a Maugier-Trojan special production, "Deep Waters" and a featured comedy.

Coming Monday afternoon of the greatest pictures, "Outside the Law," featuring Fritsch and Lon Chaney.

There is one drawback about things that are hard to explain—some have gets the notion that he knows how to explain them.

It will soon be the time of year when parents of two generations are prepared the mixture of sulphur and molasses.

Not even a wise man is able to tell what the public will applaud tomorrow.

DIVIDE STOCKS STRONGER TODAY

After several weeks of inactivity, the Divide stocks were the center of today's trading. Tonopah Divide was the leader. Opening in New York with bids at 1 1/2, the price continued upward to sales at 1 1/2 1/2. The Fresno market opened with sales at 1 1/2 and steadily rising advanced to high sales at 1 1/2 1/2, closing at 1 1/2 1/2, bid a total of 1000 shares changing hands.

Other Divides also felt the buying pressure. Divide Extension advanced from 33 to high sales at 35. Brougher at 11. Hasbrouck at 3, and Dividend at 3 were stronger. Day Divide has been active, with sales recorded at 4.

The higher values in the vein on the 100-foot level of the Tonopah divide which were encountered yesterday caused the upward movement in the stock. On account of public buying, the indications point to higher prices.

In the Tonopah West End sold in 100 Jim Butler at 15 and Crescent at 12. North Star was unsold on bids at 6.

The Goldfields were neglected, with Red Hills selling at 2. Consolidated Virginia, after weeks of heavy trading, was quiet, with sales at 77 and 75. Good progress is being made to reach the junction of the veins on the 2250 level.

Ophir was steady at 1 1/2. Broken Hills remained the same at 20 and Silver Hills continues to advance steadily, today's sales being recorded at 35 on a buyer, 52,700 shares changing hands. Grains continues weaker at 15. Croesus has advanced steadily the past week from 1 1/2 to high sales at 1 1/2.

The industrial market is slowly recovering from the break earlier in the week.

Total sales for the day, 329,200 shares.

The average person does not lie awake at night worrying about the direction in which civilization is headed.

It will require something more formidable than a smallpox sign to keep office-seekers away from the White House now.

LEGION TEAMS MEET FRIDAY

Much interest is being shown in the basketball games scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights of this week. These games will close the season here and the fans are anxious to see the final showing of the local teams can make. The American Legion team from Bishop, California, will play both nights, Friday with the American Legion team of Elmer J. Bell post and Saturday with the high school team. The games are to be staged in the high school gymnasium, and a dance will follow tomorrow night's game. The school board has had another balcony constructed in the gym since the last games were held there, so seating capacity for about 100 more persons has been provided. It is hoped that this new will have to stand through these games, although some enthusiastic fans may find the games too exciting to remain calmly seated for long after the whistle blows to start the games.

CLARA SMITH HAMON TRIAL STARTS TODAY

one time bore the name of Hamon, which she later asserted was the name to which she responded. This information was brought out through the allegations of Ruth Walker Hamon of San Francisco, who declared she was the wife of Frank Louis Hamon, former husband of Clara Smith and nephew of Jake Hamon. Ruth Hamon in her statements declared that Clara Smith and Frank Hamon were divorced at Weatherford, Texas, May 23, 1917. This statement was later corroborated by records on file in the court clerk's office at Weatherford.

Ruth Hamon further stated that Frank Hamon was paid $100 a month by Jake Hamon as compensation for marrying Clara Smith Raymond Hamon, Frank's brother and also nephew of Jake Hamon, declared his uncle paid Frank $100 monthly because of the latter's ill health.

Interviews purporting to have been given newspapermen and others during her travel to Mexico and before she surrendered were denied by Mrs. Hamon in signed statements, made after she started back to Ardmore.

Mrs. Jake L. Hamon of Chicago, widow, stated when in Ardmore and Oklahoma City that she did not at that time desire to apprehend Clara Smith nor was it her wish to have her prosecuted. She declared then that Mr. Hamon's deathbed statement that he died from accidental wounds was her belief.

Injection of Clara Hamon's claim to a share of Jake Hamon's estate threw another angle into the case, upon which, defense counsel declared, would be brought to bear the disclosures that would follow. Defense counsel maintained strict secrecy surrounding all of Clara Hamon's testimony that would be introduced at the trial.
